The winner of the Belarusian youth competition of epistolary essays has been determined, the work of which will represent Belarus at the International Competition in Bern

Within the framework of the 50th jubilee International Youth Competition of Epistolary Essays, organized by the Universal Postal Union (UPU), RUE “Belpochta” for the 25th time held the Belarusian Youth Epistolary Essay Competition among students of state educational institutions of the Republic of Belarus not older than 15 years.
The epistolary essay competition is not only a great opportunity to develop the ability to formulate and express their thoughts, but also to help participants understand the important role that postal services play in our society.
In 2021, participants were asked to write a report (message, letter) to a family member about their experiences with the COVID-19 pandemic.
The work of the winner of the 25th Belarusian Youth Epistolary Essay Competition, Gleb Aleksandrovich KLIMOVICH, a student of the Naroch Secondary School of the Vileika District, will represent our country at the 50th jubilee International Youth Competition of Epistolary Essays in 2021 in the city of Bern, Switzerland.
For reference:
During the international competition, Belarusian young authors won two gold, two silver, one bronze medals and three incentive prizes.

Details on the website RUE Belpochta

Source URL: https://www.mpt.gov.by/news/12-05-2021-7184